FIRST OFF...Were we ever a United States? Civil war, the suffragette movement, civil rights...there's always been one battle or another going on. but it does seem that there was always a top layer of respect given by and to those on opposite sides of whatever issue. Now that's gone and we're reduced to shouting matches filled with misinformation. Think twice, speak once, Son House said. We need to heed that now more than ever. Enjoy the fall...shop local and keep the community strong, vital and real.

LEVON HELM - ELECTRIC DIRT  Every time I hear Levon Helm, I want to put on the overalls and work boots, get behind the mule & plow. This guy survived the 60's, The Band and throat cancer, and you can tell by the tone of his voice that he's having a blast and enjoying life to the fullest right now. There are quite a few standouts here, "Tennessee Jed", "You Can't Lose What You Never Had" and "When I Go Away" which he shares vocal duties, with his daughter among them. A little bit country, a little bit gospel, a whole lot of fun. Worth checking out. I give it 3 bones.
See you next time on the corner...

Closing Statement: "A true friend is someone who is there for you when they'd rather be anywhere else." Len Wein
